Hello [Manager's Name],

I would like to request approval to attend an upcoming live interactive workshop, The Art of Finding Shared Meaning When Communication Styles Collide, on [Date] from [Start Time] to [End Time].

Working effectively with Japanese indirect communication styles requires reading between the lines, managing expectations carefully, and knowing how to align without creating friction. This session focuses on practical, real-world frameworks for:

- Preventing costly misunderstandings: Decoding indirect feedback, hesitation, and polite "yes" signals early so projects stay on schedule and avoid last-minute surprises.
- Building stronger trust and alignment: Adapting how we present ideas, deliver feedback, and ask questions when collaborating with Japanese colleagues, partners, or clients.
- Actionable team takeaways: I'll also receive a field guide and practical phrasing templates that I can bring back and share with our team.

The standard tuition is $199, with an early bird rate of $149 available until November 26, including a receipt for L&D reimbursement.

Please let me know if I can use my professional development budget to reserve a spot before the early bird rate closes.

Thanks,
